

Frequently Asked Questions

Central County Community Advisory Board/CCCAB meeting Wednesday, February 19, 2025

What is the CCCAB? The Central County Community Advisory Board (CCCAB) is a group of area civic association and homeowner leaders who address local concerns and provide input to the County Commission.

What is the meeting about? The CCCAB members voted to host a townhall with Sheriff Gregory Tony, in lieu of a regular CCCAB meeting.

What time does the meeting start? 6:00 pm

Is Sheriff Tony going to be there? Sheriff Tony has confirmed he will be in attendance.

Why should I attend? This meeting is an opportunity for residents who live in Roosevelt Gardens, Franklin Park, Washington Park and Boulevard Gardens to learn about law enforcement services that are being provided in the Central County area and to voice their concerns to BSO leadership.

Is this a free event? Yes, there is no cost to attend.

Will I be able to speak? Speaker forms will be available at the sign in desk for those who wish to speak. There will be a 2 minute limit.

Is the CCCAB meeting open to anyone? It is a public meeting for homeowners and residents who live in Roosevelt Gardens, Franklin Park, Washington Park and Boulevard Gardens. However, it is open to anyone who is interested in attending.

Which services does BSO provide in Central County? BSO provides regional law enforcement and fire rescue services. Additionally, BSO is responsible for operating the E-911 call taker services.

Where is Franklin Park? Franklin Park is located at 2501 Franklin Drive (NW 22nd Road) Fort Lauderdale, FL 33311

Where do I park? Franklin Park's parking lots are located on NW 9 street and Franklin Drive.